

Storage Installation in Vizcaya

One of our last projects is the construction of five tanks of Hydrocarbon storage with the last advances in construction, ingeniering with the strictest controls of security and quality as much in its design as in its accomplishment. For the process construction has been used a system of hidraulic jacks developed and patented by Carinox, S.A. In the development of this news you can observe in images the complete process of its construction.